Dear Betty,

I expected that by now I would have been able to come to Los Angeles and discuss my boys and your IRS information but I had several unexpected events happen (nothing bad) that ~~has~~^{HAVE} kept me out of the U.S. and when I returned, I had to leave again. Even now I am scheduled to make three more trips out of the U.S. before the end of this year.

~~Presently~~ Presently I don't know when I can come there but I know that I want to. I want to do what I can to help resolve the IRS matter and to discuss my boys, to learn of Mickey, Jr. and Tim and to learn how you are.

In my travels I mislaid your letter and only discovered it recently and reread about your back injury. I am sorry I did not respond to that sooner to tell you how very sorry I was to know that you had gone through that injury and I hope you are now feeling well and have recovered entirely from that.

Traveling as much as I have recently makes it difficult if not impossible to maintain any continuity on a daily basis. I know that I want to see you to discuss these various matters and I will, but my travels and things that I must attend to on my return have not made it easy to follow through and get up to Los Angeles, even though it is not far away. I will return from my next trip on October 7 and leave again on the 28th and will phone you to see when is a good time to meet you within that period.

With best wishes for all things to be resolved through Truth & Love,

Barney
